

International Relations Final Exam The Human Rights Project

Requirements for Final Exam Presentation

You will research and present your findings to the class with one of the following ideas.

Human Rights organization Human Rights issue

Your final exam involves informing your classmates of an individual, organization or issue that is further promoting human rights from around the world. This information can consist of many different ideas such as stopping human trafficking in India, teaching literacy to the impoverished, helping women in wartime or stopping child labor. The protection and support of human rights is alive and flourishing throughout the world!

Your final exam presentation will include the following:

1. Google Docs, PowerPoint or Flowvella presentation:

8-10 slides

Embedded 2-minute or less video describing issue, or organization.

2. Create a press release (flyer) with information that will describe and illustrate your organization or issue.

(Image, summary, contact information, website, Facebook, Twitter, etc.)

Important dates:

_____ – seniors begin presentations followed by juniors and sophomores.

Research time:

Some class time will be provided for the Human Rights Project. However, it is important to note that in most cases, your project will require more time. PLAN ACCORDINGLY!

Be prepared to find out that the world is doing some awesome good!